

Asia's new international political economy in a post-pandemic world

April 16, 2021 10-12 (Moscow time)

16-18 (East Asia time)

A joint session by the World Economy Department at St. Petersburg University, The Asia Center at the Institute of Economics, RAS

The session is planned as a round table, and participants are invited to share their views on the following questions:

- I. Restructuring global value chains and impact on national economies in East Asia
- II. Implications of mega regional trade deals for East Asian economies: a view on RCEP and renewal of CPTPP, China-EU trade deal, trilateral agreement between China, Korea and Japan
- III. Trade policy priorities for a post-pandemic recovery; importance of environmental issues for a post-pandemic trade policy
- IV. Technological competition in East Asia and its impact on intra-regional economic dynamics
- V. US Asia policy under the new administration and implications for the region

For further details, please, contact irinakorgun@yandex.ru , l.v.popova@spbu.ru

SPEAKERS

- Dr. Nikita Stepanov, Senior Research Fellow, The Institute of Economics, RAS, Moscow, Russia
- Dr. SU Qingyi, Deputy Head of World Trade Department from Institute of World Economics and politics, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences (CASS)
- Professor WAN Guanhua, Director of the Institute of World Economy, School of Economics, Fudan University
- Professor WANG Xiaosong, Institute of Economics, Renmin University of China, Beijing, China